SOURCE

- 1. On 17 November President Castaneda Castro of El Salvador was granted permission by the Salvadoran Assembly to leave the country. It was reported by his personal physician, Dr. Fernando Sandoval, that the President will confer with President Victor Roman y Reyes of Nicaragua regarding the formulation of a pact for the union of the two countries.
- Dr. Sandoval added that both Roman y Reyes and Ceneral Somoza had agreed to the pact.
- 3. According to Sandoval, President Carias of Honduras is still holding out, but Somoza is personally pressuring him to join through Ambassador Sequeiros at Tegucigalpa.
